

A.R.E./Glad Helpers' International Prayer List

FEBRUARY 2024

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Kimberly Ford, of Niles, Ohio, shared experiencing God's guidance while baking bread. She found a brand new bread machine at the thrift store at an incredible price and ordered a book of recipes. "It seemed that God was working with me quite well."

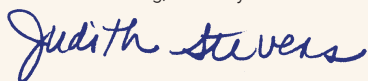

The book arrived; she chose a sweet bread recipe. "I put all the ingredients in the right order and waited. The dough ball was rising so I went upstairs to read a while.

"When I came downstairs, dough was everywhere! I opened the door and had this moment with God: 'Man shall not live by bread alone.' Not by this bread, that's for sure!

"Would I choose to feel His Presence—His Love—or not? Suddenly I was laughing and couldn't stop. Sticky dough was on everything! It took two hours to clean that machine, and let's just say the birds and squirrels enjoyed it from the compost pile. I went back to my old recipe, tweaked it, baked it, and it tasted great!

"If I am baking with God, I can guarantee it will be a wonderful time, no matter how the loaf comes out!"

Thanks for sharing, Kimberly. You made our day!

Obstructions to World Peace and How to Overcome Them

(Beginning with Question 28 in World Affairs Reading 3976-27)

Compiled by Judith Stevens

In June, 1942, Mr. Cayce delineated four impediments to World Peace:

1. Economic inequalities of nations

The readings Source told us to get busy and share what we have with those who need it. We will be judged as to what we DO—our sins of commission and sins of omission. We are told to "do something ABOUT the problems" and are reminded that only those with "the pure heart, the pure purpose" can stand before the Lord. "To them there is peace, even in the midst of strife . . ."

2. Racial hatreds

We are told that "the Lord is not a respecter of persons."

'He that doeth the will of the Father, the same is my brother, my sister, my mother.' "Then, mentally, spiritually, DO SOMETHING . . ."

3. Nationalism

The Source said, "There should be the feeling for the own self, but not unto the detriment of others. . . . What right has any man to set state or nation above that principle of brotherly love?"

4. Religious differences

"The Lord is ONE!" ". . . God loveth those who love Him . . ." no matter what their religion.

"Would that all souls could, would, comprehend that great sentence—which has been, is, the motivating force in all who seek to live, who seek to manifest, who seek to give expression of God's force or power." (2067-1)

". . . know, the greater lesson the world has ever known and may ever learn is, "Know O ye people, the Lord thy God is One—One. This is thy message, this is thy purpose. Proclaim and

*"Father of mercy and grace!
Let love be the directing purpose in my life experience."*

Edgar Cayce reading 281-39

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

Due to the growing number of monthly prayer requests, multiple requests for and from the same family member will be listed as (your name) "Jane Doe and Family," or "Jane Doe and Friends," or "Jane Doe and Family & Friends." We will pray for you, as the channel, as you pray for those on your personal prayer list, which is what Mr. Cayce instructed members of the original Prayer Group to do. Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

sow that seed of unity of purpose, that may be found within. And that is thy mission. . . ." (1770-2)

Nine to seventeen members of the Glad Helpers Prayer group agreed to pray with Mr. Cayce during this period of time "for divine guidance in order to be of greater service." [See his readings to the Prayer Group: 281-59, 60, and 61.]

"So, this message to all: Keep that awareness of His presence. . . . And though there may be abroad hate, avarice, selfishness, and those things that make men [and women] afraid—be still within thine own heart, thine own consciousness, and know that He is with thee. . . . the real strength, the real hope, the real contribution is in that still small voice within. . . . no one can destroy the soul but self! No one but self! . . . Let that heart, that mind then be in thee as was in Him—"that ye love one another." (281-59)

"Let each individual know that it came into life with a purpose from God. . . . you each have your part to do." Our relationship to God "may only be manifested in the manner the individual treats his fellow [human beings]. . . . selfishness and greed would make slaves of thy fellow [humans]. . . . each individual is alive unto God or dead unto self. . . . let there be union of purpose." (281-60)

Mr. Cayce reminded the Glad Helpers "There should be more consistency and more unified effort on the part of each, as to time, as to sincerity of purpose; not as individuals personally but as in keeping with BEING glad helpers for others. . . . each being more faithful, more consistent, more DESIROUS to be of help to others." (281-61)

Good advice for all of us in these challenging times!

Information from the A.R.E. Board:

[Please pray this Board affirmation with us daily]

"Surround us in our seeking to know what the Creative Forces would have our organizations do, calling on the promise that Creative Forces will abide with those [who] seek the Highest. Show us the way that aligns with the Highest." (ECRL 412-7)
