

A.R.E./Glad Helpers' International Prayer List

MAY 2024

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Our recent experiment for the World Affairs/Peace Group was to apply in our daily meditation, contemplation, and attitude, two passages from our reading of 5749-13, the series of 16 "Jesus readings."

"Thus in this hour of despair throughout the world, when those activities are such as to indicate hate, injustice, tyranny, desire to impel others to submit to the dictates of this or that power—let all take heart and know that this, too, as the hour upon Calvary, must pass away; and that as upon the wings of the morning there comes that new hope, that new desire, to the hearts and minds of all who seek to know His face.

"Meditate oft upon what it has meant, does mean today, to CRUCIFY the Lord thy God in thy daily experiences. Rather magnify, glorify Him in every word, every activity, in all thy dealings with thy fellow man. By thy very step, by thy very look, by thy word, create HOPE in the hearts, minds, and lives of others."

The Goal: Peace, Dignity, and Equality on a Healthy Planet The Result: The United Nations Compiled by Judith Stevens

In a recent discussion, one of our Canadian members sent the World Affairs Group members a copy of the original Charter of the United Nations, with penciled additions and corrections.

After 50 nations of the world came together in San Francisco, California, to create a new organization promoting peace, prosperity, and human rights, the United Nations began on October 24, 1945.

The United Nations' website offers the full text of the United Nations Charter.

"WE THE PEOPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS, determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and to affirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small, and to establish conditions which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained, and to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

AND FOR THESE ENDS

to practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors, to unite our strength to maintain international peace and security, and to ensure, by the acceptance of principles and “ . . . Show mercy, show love, even as ye would have such shown to thee. . . . ”

Edgar Cayce reading 281-50

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

Due to the growing number of monthly prayer requests, multiple requests for and from the same family member will be listed as (your name) “Jane Doe and Family,” or “Jane Doe and Friends,” or “Jane Doe and Family & Friends.” We will pray for you, as the channel, as you pray for those on your personal prayer list, which is what Mr. Cayce instructed members of the original Prayer Group to do. Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

the institution of methods, that armed force shall not be used, save in the common interest, and to employ international machinery for the promotion of the economic and social advance of all peoples,

HAVE RESOLVED TO COMBINE OUR EFFORTS TO ACCOMPLISH THESE AIMS.

Accordingly, our respective Governments, through representatives assembled in the city of San Francisco, who have exhibited their full powers found to be in good and due forms, have agreed to the present Charter of the United Nations and do hereby establish an international organization to be known as the United Nations.

The purposes of the United Nations are:

1. To maintain international peace and security, and to that end: to take effective collective measures for the prevention and removal of threats to the peace, and for the suppression of acts of aggression or other breaches of the peace, and to bring about by peaceful means, and in conformity with the principles of justice and international law, adjustment or settlement of international disputes or situations which might lead to a breach of the peace;

2. To develop friendly relations among nations based on respect for the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples, and to take other appropriate measures to strengthen universal peace;
3. To achieve international cooperation in solving international problems of an economic, social, cultural, or humanitarian character, and in promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and for fundamental freedoms for all without distinction as to race, sex, language, or religion; and
4. To be a center for harmonizing the actions of nations in the attainment of these common ends."

Note: Italicized information in last month's prayer list at the end of the article titled, ". . . Teach Them God . . . and Brotherly Love," should have credited the National Archives.gov (Milestone documents). The editor regrets the omission.
