

A.R.E./Glad Helpers' International Prayer List

JULY 2024

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Over 90 years of continuous prayer is an incredible achievement for the Glad Helpers group and its community of pray-ers around the world. The Edgar Cayce Foundation Archive preserves the historical records documenting the origin of the Glad Helpers, which coincided with the founding of the A.R.E. in 1931. It's a fascinating story that continues to unfold, with every prayer you send to others.

Thank you to Judith Stevens for her years of service and dedication to Prayer and Meditation Services, and for announcing the recent growth happening at A.R.E. Headquarters. At Congress, we witnessed the passion and energy of members like you from around the world who are guiding others toward healing and growth through application of the Cayce material.

With gratitude,

Jessica Newell

Tending the Garden

Jessica Newell

On the morning of May 9, 1939, at 10:30 a.m., Edgar Cayce gave a reading to a 44-year-old woman interested in growing spiritually:

“So, in thy spiritual and mental life, keep in those ways that will bring the more and more consciousness that He stands not at thy door but that He walks and He talks with thee! and thy garden of love and light is filled with His presence; and ye show these in the manner of thy thought, thy conversation, thy dealings with thy fellow man.” (1877-1)

I recently listened to a podcast conversation that offered an inspiring suggestion: visualize the soul as a garden. In this garden of the inner self, there are flowers and there are weeds. If seeds of virtue are planted, flowers of courage, kindness, and long-suffering bloom. Weeds spring up: the passions of anger, fear, and judgment, that can so easily overtake the flowers. Our job is to pull the weeds and tend the flowers. It is a challenging and lifelong pursuit.

Saint Porphyrios (1906-1991) is often quoted as saying: “God has placed a power in man’s soul. But it is up to him how he channels it—for good or for evil. If we imagine the good as a garden full of

July 2024 Affirmation

"Keep the heart singing. Be JOYFUL in service. Be happy in well doing."

Edgar Cayce reading 281-50

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

Due to the growing number of monthly prayer requests, multiple requests for and from the same family member will be listed as (your name) "Jane Doe and Family," or "Jane Doe and Friends," or "Jane Doe and Family & Friends." We will pray for you, as the channel, as you pray for those on your personal prayer list, which is what Mr. Cayce instructed members of the original Prayer Group to do. Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

flowers, trees, and plants, and the evil as weeds and thorns, and the power as water, then what can happen is as follows: when the water is directed towards the flower-garden, then all the plants grow, blossom, and bear fruit; and at the same time, the weeds and thorns, because they are not being watered, wither and die. And the opposite, of course, can also happen."<sup>1</sup>

What are some practical ways to care for our garden? To start, spend some time within it. Observe what you are working with. It can be helpful to journal about what you see growing in your garden. Our prayer life also gives us strength and motivation with the knowledge that we are guided by God in this endeavor. Prayer gives us the opportunity to calm down—physically, emotionally, and spiritually—so that the state of our garden is revealed.

Make a plan to regularly water the seeds. Set out upon the work necessary to pull the weeds. Our mindset is so important in this regard. Saint Paul reminds us, ". . . whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things." (Philippians 4:8).
