

A.R.E./Glad Helpers' International Prayer List

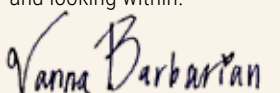

MARCH 2025

Dear Prayer and Healing Friends,

Entering into the first sign of the zodiac, Aries, can be a wonderful time for valiant new beginnings. The astrological sign of Pisces can symbolize the division of our attention between fantasy and reality. We can use the month of March to create our ideal reality (no matter how great of a fantasy it may seem) and use the coming season of Aries as a way to bring into being what we need. No vision is too great to bring to life; we are the artists painting our reality.

During March, the planets Venus, Mercury, Mars, Jupiter, Neptune, Saturn, and Uranus will align in the sky. This is known as a "planetary parade." Forthcoming eclipses and this planetary alignment will be cause for an intense month of inner consideration, creation of movement, and metamorphosis. We have the power to reflect on our year thus far, and promote action for the direction to align with our energy and purpose. Trusting our intuition is necessary, along with embracing all emotions that arise through this process. Grace and gentleness will be a keynote as we accept what we see when "turning the mirror" and looking within.

May Self Be of Service in the World Savanna Barbarian

Throughout the prayer group readings we explore many elements such as Prayer and Meditation, The Revelation, and the Endocrine Glands. The nuggets of wisdom found within each of these readings are invaluable.

Reminding ourselves of this time of reflection and transformation, we "turn the mirror" to find the answers we are seeking which are already within. When we offer up our challenges to God, we free ourselves of the constraints of fear that bind us and keep us stuck in a lower plane of consciousness. "As ye ask in my name, believing, that will be done in thy experience that the Father may be glorified in me and I in you." 281-20

Reading 281-20 was given on April 27, 1934. This reading provides inspiration and is centered on healing self so that we can be of help to others. Mr. Cayce steadily returned to the point that to help or heal others, we first have to heal ourselves. He reminded us that we have all the tools within to do so. A question was asked, "How can I be of help to others?" His answer was, "This is done by living that life first in self and then sending it out in His name to those that seek through the aid thou, with others, may be in fulfilling that which is promised by Him."* Going forward, we can remind ourselves to practice what we preach. We have the opportunity to share our experiences of walking the path, and this enriches others. "In this manner may self be of service in the world."*

We not only find fellowship in shared

March 2025 Affirmation

"Let the words of my mouth, the purposes of my heart, the desires of the flesh, be attuned to the love of the Father . . ."

Edgar Cayce reading 281-35

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

Due to the growing number of monthly prayer requests, multiple requests for and from the same family member will be listed as (your name) "Jane Doe and Family," or "Jane Doe and Friends," or "Jane Doe and Family & Friends." We will pray for you, as the channel, as you pray for those on your personal prayer list, which is what Mr. Cayce instructed members of the original Prayer Group to do. Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

experiences (application) but we also find self. As we enter into challenging experiences, we are able to see our growth as well as areas in ourselves that still need tending. We are able to readily move towards our spiritual ideal and seek guidance from our highest self (God.) "Not so much self-development, but rather developing the Christ Consciousness in self, being selfless, that He may have HIS way with thee, that He—the Christ—may direct thy ways, that He will guide thee in the things thou doest, thou sayest."* Giving others the gift of understanding that has been bestowed on us can be the greatest gift to give. Often our examples bring others to a higher plane of consciousness and offer a positive light. "In this manner may one give of self to others most. Not as self-exaltation, but as glorifying the Christ that the Father may give those good gifts to those that love His ways."*

If we wish to heal others, pray for others, and guide others, we have to remember we are merely a channel, remembering that the highest power is at all times working through us. "Then, making self a channel, practice and preach—but practice twice what you preach once."* Those who claim to be a healer as an identifying trait must work twice as hard on themselves to become a proper channel. Every person who comes onto our path is a mirror showing us what we need to analyze and work on. "Let those things that thou knowest be done in meekness and in truth, that the Christ Consciousness may be made more aware in the experience of those thou would aid."*

"First let each enter into its own inner self and ask for direction, and—BELIEVING His presence will be with thee . . . 'Where two or three are gathered . . . I will be there in the midst of them'."* In essence, we are awakening ourselves in awakening others.

We are building a personal, deep, intimate, spiritual relationship, not only with our fellow humans, but also with God. As we cultivate these connections, we open ourselves to the potential of inspiring others and leading, perhaps, to a realization of the Christ Consciousness.
