

Dear Prayer and Healing Friends,

As we embrace the warmth and brightness of June, let us take a moment to reflect on growth and renewal. This month invites us to step outside, feel the sun on our faces, and appreciate the beauty of nature blossoming around us. It's a time to reconnect with our dreams and nurture the relationships that bring us joy. May we find inspiration in every sunrise and strength in every challenge.

Let's embrace the power of prayer as a cherished tool for connection—both to the Divine and within ourselves. This month let's take the time to cultivate a daily practice of prayer; it will anchor us amidst the busyness of life.

Prayer is a source of comfort, guidance, and inspiration, and remember that we are never alone. Let June be a month of profound reflection and meaningful dialogue with the universe. As days grow longer and brighter, may our spiritual journey flourish, filling our hearts with peace, purpose, and joy.

Prayer is the undergirding of all that we do here at the A.R.E. Try it yourself. Take a moment each day to pause, breathe, and connect through prayer. It will illuminate your path and enrich your life.

The Nuts and Bolts of Doing the Work with the Glad Helpers Savanna Barbarian

The two HQ Glad Helpers Healing Prayer Groups and those groups around the world demonstrate a deep commitment to spiritual support and wellness. Inspired by the teachings of Edgar Cayce, Glad Helpers emphasize two core commitments. Our primary purpose is to offer prayers for healing to individuals seeking assistance through the group. The groups' ideal is to align themselves as expressions of divine love, embodying and reflecting the spiritual love that underpins their healing practices.

The Glad Helpers Healing Prayer Group is a collective of ordinary individuals dedicated to extraordinary spiritual healing and support. Their private prayer life strengthens their commitment to help those who seek prayer. Their members offer themselves as channels for divine intervention for individuals who may be experiencing physical, emotional, or spiritual difficulties.

Mr. Cayce emphasized the significance of shared experiences within the original group. Many current members have themselves undergone transformative healing through spiritual practices. This fosters a strong sense of purpose and motivation to assist others.

The Group prays 30 days or one month for each person requesting prayer. In reading 281-1, Mr. Cayce states that the Glad Helpers' purpose should be to pray for the healing of those who are seeking help through this group, and to prepare ourselves fully to be expressions of His love. What do the Glad Helpers do?

1. The group prays for the Highest good for all those seeking. We do not try to tell God how to do it, nor do we know what every individual

June 2025 Affirmation

"Father, God!... Take away fear and doubt: that my body may be whole: that my mind may be clear: that my soul may be at peace with thee." Edgar Cayce reading 281-45 The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

We will pray for you, as the channel, as you pray for those on your personal prayer list, which is what Mr. Cayce instructed members of the original Prayer Group to do. Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

needs and the most effective healing for each, but God, working through us, knows.

2. The Glad Helpers offer "Direct Prayer" for those who pray daily for themselves and a portion of the names on the Glad Helpers printed prayer list. As the group directly prays for a person requesting prayer, this amplifies that person's prayers for those on their own individual prayer list.

The Glad Helpers Handbook states, "Healing prayer should be given only for those who are actively seeking help or for whom we take responsibility (such as young children or those in a coma.)" The receiver or the responsible party should be in a receptive state physically, mentally, and spiritually. Similarly, Mr. Cayce asked readings recipients to be in meditation or prayer at the time of their reading. "According to our understanding of the Edgar Cayce readings, this is one of the fundamental laws of spiritual healing: before spiritual healing can take place, the individual must become attuned to the creative and restorative power of God, usually through prayer and/or meditation. Once the necessary attunement takes place, healing begins."

3. "Surrounding Prayer" is for those who have not requested healing

prayer but for whom we have concern. They are not likely to participate actively in the attunement and healing process. The Handbook states, "If the receiver has not requested the prayer . . . he or she will obviously not be ready to receive the energy for attunement purposes. The energy may be received but it could strengthen destructive patterns, attitudes, and behavior that may be causing the illness or preventing healing."

"There must be the wholehearted cooperation upon the part of those desiring aid . . ."

4. The Glad Helpers pray for those who have "Passed On," sending light on their pathway into their next experience and love to their family and friends who remain. "Father in Thy love, Thy mercy, be thou near those who are in-and have recently entered-the borderland. May I aid, when Thou seest that Thou canst [can] use me."

5. The Glad Helpers pray for those who call with emergencies or need immediate prayer assistance. We pray for individuals and their medical teams, etc.

Anyone may request prayers by calling 757-457-7191. We invite your participation and stand ready to serve you. Our 94-year tradition is strong and we hope to continue for many years more.
